In the Neighborhood

Ocean Grove is known as one of New Jersey's finest year-round family seashore destinations. This quaint and relaxing town is one square mile of natural beauty that has welcomed & delighted vacationers for over a century. Ocean Grove offers one of the finest assemblage of authentic Victorian architecture in the nation. In 1976, the town was entered in the National Register of Historic Places and, in 1977, the New Jersey State Register of Historic Places. Along Main Street you will find a nice assortment of Restaurants & Bistros (*Most in OG are BYO) Offering 2 Bakeries several Coffee Shops and even a specialty Tea shop. In addition a short wander around town allows you to discover antique shops, art galleries, an antique soda shop, a well-stocked food market, and an ice cream parlor in operation since the turn of the 20th century.

The Great Auditorium is considered to be the most impressive and largest enclosed auditorium in New Jersey and is the center of activity in Ocean Grove since 1894. It is used for Sunday services in the summer as well as Concerts by top name performers, exhibitions and other entertainment are also held in the auditorium.
